Suspect in Garage Burglaries Identified

The suspect arrested in Onalaska on January 17th in connection with numerous burglaries and car entries has been identified as Nicholas J. Marcum, a 28 year old resident of Onalaska. He confessed to numerous burglaries and vehicle entries in the Onalaska area after a search of his residence revealed numerous items reported stolen.

“These cases were solved by a combination of solid police work, utilization of technology and partnership with the community,” said Onalaska Police Chief, Jeffrey Trotnic, “That’s a winning combination and it paid off.”
