COPS GONE WILD!

The Onalaska Police Department will be out in force at the Onalaska Buffalo Wild Wings this Wednesday for their annual Cops Gone Wild. From noon until 8pm Buffalo Wild Wings will donate a portion of all food sales to the Wisconsin Special Olympics and officers from the Onalaska Police Department will be on hand greeting customers and assisting. At 5:30p.m. representatives from local law enforcement will be representing their Departments in a wing eating contest. Please come out and cheer the contestants on as they eat their way to Wild Wings history. "We're hoping for a good turn out," said Onalaska Investigator Pete Jakowski, "the funds we raise go to support Special Olympics. My wife and I have worked as coaches for these remarkable people for years now and their determination and sportsmanship never fails to inspire me."
