

Press Release

Contact: Jeffrey Trotnic
Phone: (608)392-0273

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
13 May 2014

1st ANNUAL "CHICAGO STLYE" SOFTBALL GAME

A team of Onalaska All Stars are preparing to take on Fort McCoy in a game of "Chicago Style" softball on May 18th at Quincy Street Community Park. Chicago Style softball is played using a 16" florescent ball.

"The All Stars have been practicing hard," said Onalaska Police Chief Jeffrey Trotnic, "we are looking forward to facing off with the team from Fort McCoy and it's for a really great cause. You can't lose with this event; good food, great company, watch an awesome game while celebrating our community and honoring our men and women of the Armed Forces. We are hoping that everyone will come out and enjoy the day with us."

All proceeds from the event will benefit Operation Homefront which provides assistance to military personnel and their families. Sponsored by Angelini's Pizzeria Ristorante, Del's Auto and Paul Pappas Insurance the event also features music by Tony and the Invaders and comedy by Jim Wiggins. The tailgate party will start at noon with the game starting at 2:30. There will be Italian Sausage, Chicago Style Vienna Hot Dogs and Pepsi

~ MORE ~

Products for sale and a performance by the Onalaska High School Band.

The Onalaska Team is made up of members of the community including City of Onalaska employees. City of Onalaska employees participating include Chief Jeff Trotnic and Investigator Chad Marcon of the Onalaska Police Department and Marcus Aumann with the Park and Recreation Department.