

Press Release

Contact: Pam Sharp
Phone: (608)392-0275

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
31 July 2012

ONALASKA'S THIRD ANNUAL NATIONAL NIGHT OUT

On August 7th the Onalaska Police Department will once again team up with community partners to host National Night Out in Onalaska. This will be Onalaska's third year participating in National Night Out and according the Onalaska Police Chief, Jeffrey Trotnic there have been a few additions.

"We have Police Cadets from WWTC joining us this year to perform close order drill," said Trotnic, "we'll also have information on the Neighborhood Watch Program available. For the kids, one of our community partners, the Blue Moon Restaurant has arranged to have the train from the American Legion at National Night Out giving rides. We'll have music courtesy of the La Crosse Radio Group and there will be a lot of fun activities for everyone."

National Night Out in Onalaska also features a car show sponsored by the Blue Moon, a petting zoo, dinner for a dollar prepared by the Onalaska Police Reserves, games, contests, a bounce house courtesy of the Big Event Company, a magic show and water wars with the Onalaska Fire Department.

"We have a great community here in Onalaska," said Chief Trotnic, "and that's due in a large part because of the partnership that exists between the police and citizens.

~ MORE ~

Together we keep our streets safe."

National Night Out runs from 5pm to 8:30pm.